Lucy’s weekend

Hi! My name is Lucy and I am eight. On Saturday morning, it is sunny. I go to the park with my dad and my little brother, Ben. We play football and Ben runs after the ball. At lunchtime, we eat sandwiches and apples under a big tree. In the afternoon, we visit our grandmother. She has a black cat called Pepper. Grandma and I make a chocolate cake together. On Sunday, it is rainy, so we stay at home. I read a book about dolphins and Ben draws a dinosaur. In the evening, we have pizza for dinner. Then I have a bath and I go to bed at eight o’clock. I am tired, but I am happy. I love my weekend!
